PROJECTS

EGR sheet evaluator Mentor: Ashwini Mane Team Size: 4 Key Skills: Python Image Processing Image Segmentation Image NumPy basically it was an automatic EGR sheet evaluator which itself evaluates the assignment without any human help . It compares the students autocad image with the ideal image and based on that it evaluates the sheet. I was responsible for documenting and presenting the image processing module's functionality, performance, and results to team members, management, . My effective communication skills and ability to present complex technical concepts in a clear and concise manner were instrumental in facilitating team discussions and obtaining feedback for further improvements.	09 Aug, 2022 - 23 Dec, 2022
